CASE NO. C09-5734BHS

ORDER GRANTING
PLAINTIFF'S THIRD MOTION
FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE OBJECTIONS TO THE
R&R AND DENYING PLAINTIFF'S FIRST AND SECOND MOTIONS FOR
EXTENSION OF TIME

20 This matter comes before the Court on the Magistrate Judge's report and 21 recommendation ("R&R") (Dkt. 124) and Plaintiff's ("LLoyd") multiple motions for 22 extension of time to file his objections to the R&R (Dkts. 125, 129, 132). The Court has 23 considered the pleadings filed in support of an extension and the remainder of the file and 24 hereby grants Lloyd's third motion for extension of time for the reasons discussed herein.

25 On November 8, 2010, the Honorable Karen L. Strombom, United States
26 Magistrate Judge, issued a report and recommendation in this matter. Dkt. 124. On 27 November 30, 2010, Lloyd moved for a one-week extension to file his objections,
28

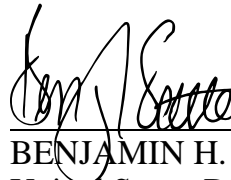

1 pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)(1) (enlargement). Dkt. 125. On December 6, 2010, he
2 also filed a second motion for extension of time. Dkt. 132 (requesting an additional week
3 extension). On the same day, Lloyd filed a third motion for extension of time. Dkt. 129
4 (requesting a 30-day extension due to being transferred to a different facility).

5 On December 13, 2010, Defendants filed a response in opposition to Lloyd's
6 motion for third extension of time. Dkt. 135.

7 Because the Court is persuaded that Lloyd's transfer to a separate facility could
8 have caused undue hardship in enabling him to file his objections to the R&R, the Court
9 finds good cause to grant an extension as requested in the third motion (Dkt. 125).

10 Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiff's third motion for extension of 11 time is GRANTED. Plaintiff's other motions (Dkts. 125, 132) are DENIED as moot.
12 Plaintiff may submit his objections no later than February 4, 2011. The Court will 13 consider any such objections filed in accord with the applicable rules.

14 DATED this 10th day of January, 2011.
